

Windrush 70

Brent Museum and Archives

VSG conference 2019

22 JUNE – 29 OCTOBER 2018

BRENT'S PIONEERING WINDRUSH GENERATION

WINDRUSH 70

An exhibition celebrating 70 years since Empire Windrush docked in the UK which explores Brent's Caribbean heritage through photographs of local residents captured by artist and photographer Nadia Nervo. Alongside are objects associated with Caribbean lifestyle and a traditional West Indian front room art installation. Accompanying the exhibition is poetry by Malika Booker and carnival headdresses by Mahogany Carnival Arts, all created with the Brent community.

The Library at Willesden Green
Brent Museum and Archives Exhibition Space
Second floor, 95 High Road,
London, NW10 2SF

www.brent.gov.uk/lwg

 @brentmuseumandarchives

 @BrentCulture

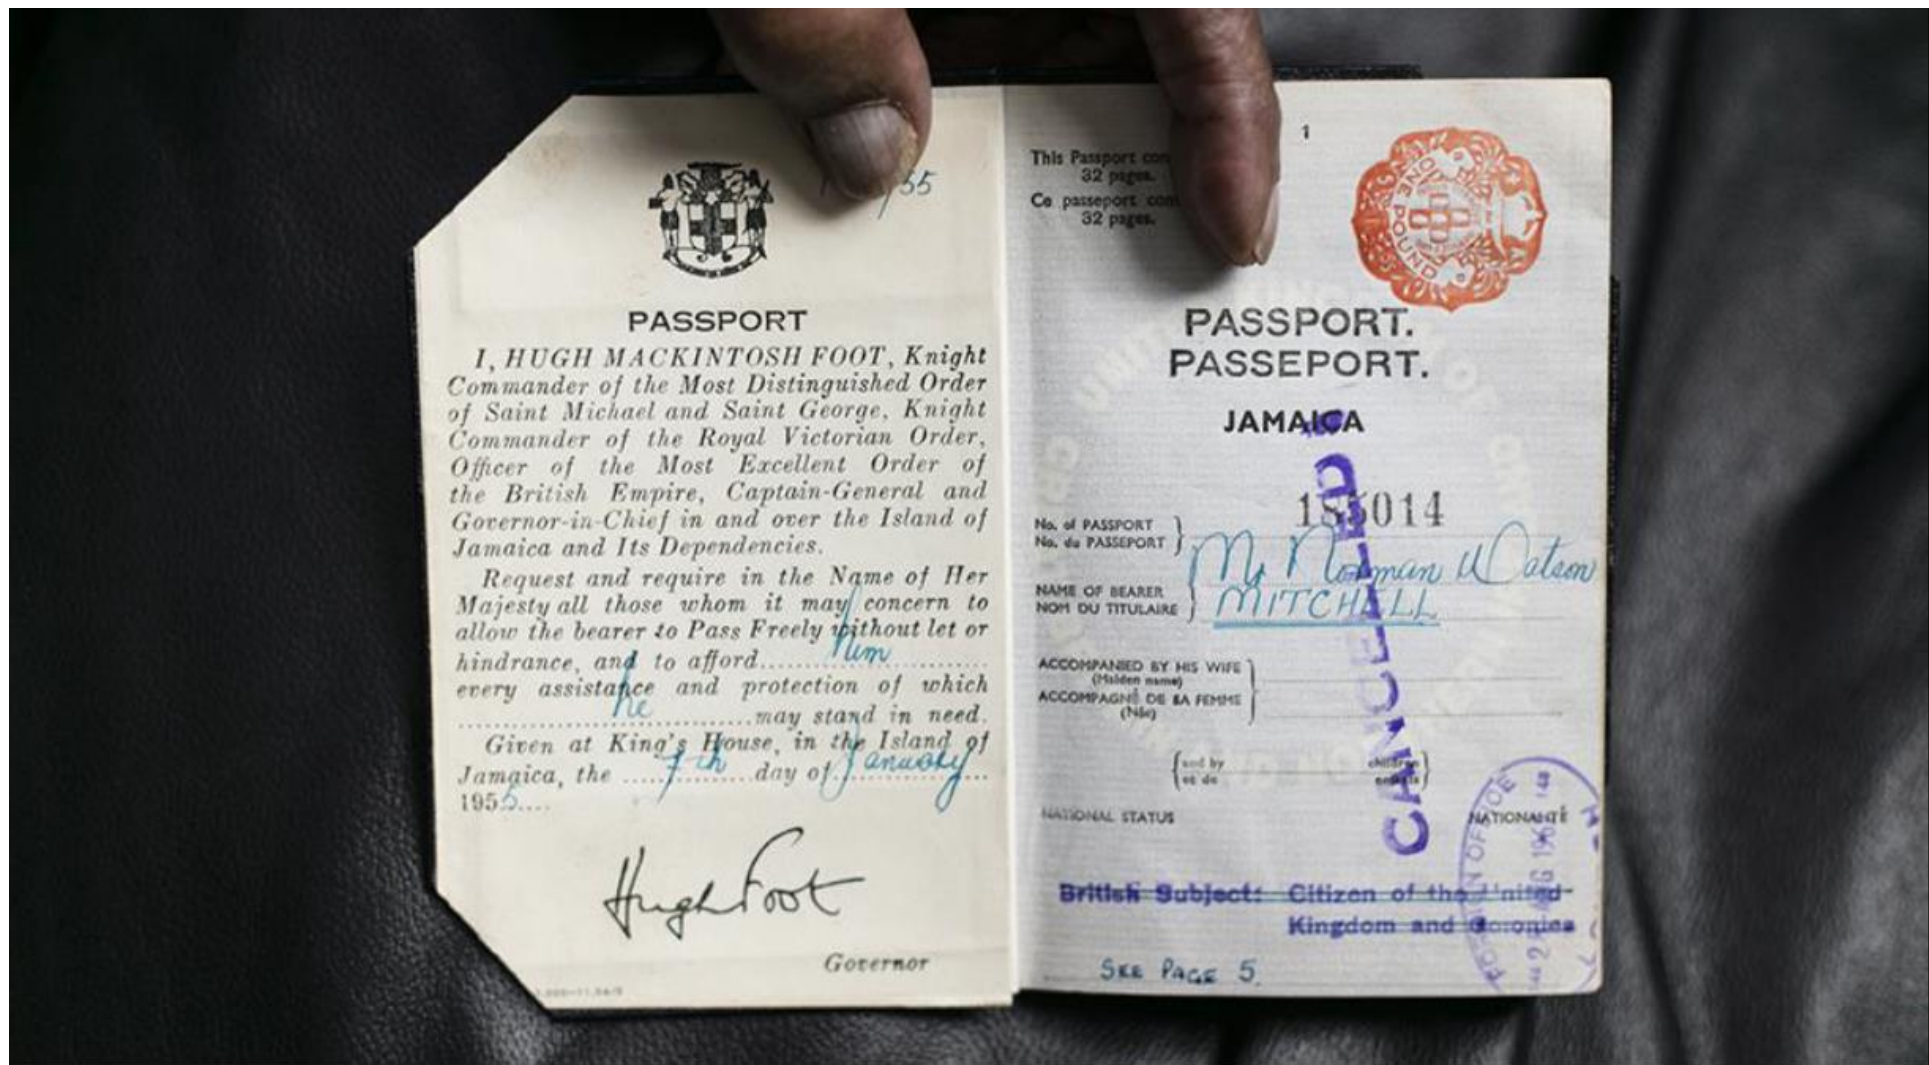

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Carmel and Clinton Forbes – Arrives 1963

Interior of British Passport issued in Jamaica 1955

The classic West Indian Front Room – A place of Pride, comfort and security. Inspired by community conversations, visits and personal stories.

Creating a handling collection

